WELCOME TO ALL
c/o: Teate Healing Energy

Dear Friends,

Well its finally here, so...Happy New Year for 2009!...to everybody

“It’s Your Time To Shine in 2009!”

Are you tired of hearing all the “doom and gloom” that has and still is going around at the moment! You just can’t get away from it at the moment...no matter where you look, the media is making the most of it...and of course not to be too cynical, laughing all the way to the bank!

Sorry about the rant...I had to get that off my chest, it has been bugging me for a while now. Why is it that so many people want to find out “how bad others are suffering”? Have you asked yourself that question as well?...I bet more than once, just like me when I see “Reality TV” programs!

This year 2009, “It’s Your Time To Shine” and continue the journey... Whose journey?...Yours of course, the one started last year through our Teate Training Programs of Novice and Apprentice.

Both Geoff and I have had a lot of great feedback from our students on the changes that they have had after completing the programs...increased awareness, more energy, greater endurance to stick to things, improved relationships, and the best one of all “feeling happier!”...Isn’t that going against the flow of what we’re being told to believe by everyone else...we’re suppose to be unhappy, worried, stressed and even depressed about everything and everybody else who is not miserable!...woops, got back on to the band wagon again..gota to stop doing that!

We tried hard to organise the running of more classes last year and it wasn’t through a lack of effort that this didn’t eventuate. During this time we have been “beavering” away...I wonder whether we should say “platypus’ing” away being Aussie’s, maybe not...anyway getting back on track...and have revamped all our manuals and extended the courses we have available now!

I can hear you all saying “OMG” (that’s Oh My God..for the religious people....) you finally did it!, Yes We Did!...and...”We’re EXCITED!!!” about it too. It’s been a lot of “Blood, Sweat & Tears”...not a bad name for a song! ... to get these finished and be able to offer them now for new courses in 2009.

Geoff and I believe that the new manuals and the new course, which is called “The Journeyman”... isn't it a great name, what else would you expect! ...is a level above anything else in presentation, quality and content that you could find.

Do you want to know more?...How can you not wonder?...And its okay to wonder... What..is it?...How...do I find out more?...What if...I miss out?...Well have we got an extra special surprise for you...I told you we we're “platypus'ing” around... we have set up a special website for YOU or TEATE STUDENTS to be able to join and find out about all the programs, timing, location, costs, and much, much more...as the site develops.

We will be adding FREEBIES as special thanks to YOU for having the courage to take the first step along your journey...reminds me of Dorothy and the Yellow Brick Road..going to the land of Oz..except that we are already there!..just kidding!
